W. CHANE, 436 Montg'y st., San Francisco WM. GEDLING Bullionville STARR Hamilton

Grenox C. Hardino editor of the Sunday Herald of Indianapolis, stands a pretty good show of being made a marry to the cause of journalistic freedom. Last week he was chased from one end of the town to the other by the irate proprietress of a house of ill-fame, upon whose fair name he had cast a foul appraion, and ou Monday he was fired at by an actor who had bee criticised. Meantime, Harding fails to scare worth a cent, and and it is probable that his pen will continue to scorch evil-doers, until some rival in the field of personal journalism pops him over. Then he will go where libel suits cease from roubling, and weary newspaper philanthropists are at rest.

SALMON P. CHASE enjoyed the eminent distinction of being the only citizen of Ohio who ever filled the four highest Ohio who ever filled the four highest positions in the government—Governor, United States Senator, Secretary of the Tressury, and member of the Supreme Cont of the United States. Thomas Corvin had three of them. General Harrison was Governor of the Indian Territory, Senator and President. But none before Chace ever held the four honors. This is the more remarkable since he espoused a cause which, when he was forty years of age, had only raised him to the position of member of the City Council of Cincinnatti, and which then could not poll twenty thousand votes in any State in the Union.

ROME celebrated the two thosand six hundred and twenty-sixth anniversary of her birth-day on the 21st of April, a holiday which she honors with great splender to keep green in the memory of her people the foundation of the city 753 years before the birth of Christ. The Coliseum, the Arch of Titus, the Palistine and Basilica of Constantine, and the Forum, where the immortal ac-cents of notable stump orators are still said to glow, were all illuminated in col-ored lights successively; and finally all Rome celebrated the two thosand six ored lights successively; and finally all were illuminated with Bengal lights, rockets, and a majestic light from the board bill, recently occurred in Fitchburg, Massachusetts. A lady saw a dog frequently about her house picking up odd bits which had been thrown out and one day she called him in and fed him.

The next day he came back, and as she opened the door he walked in and placed an egg on the floor, when he was again fed. The following day he brought another egg for his dinner; and on the other egg for his dinner; and on the fourth he brought the old hen herself, who, it seems, had failed to furnish the DISTRESSING accounts have come from all wine-growing counties of France, to the effect that hardly any of the vines have escaped the recent servere frosts, varried with cold wind and rain. In the Bordeaux district the loss is set down at five hundred million francs, and many persons will have no autumn work in the vineyards.

"What's your name?" he asked in return. "My name is Mrs. John Browning." "Welle, I calle you John!" exclaimed the Celestial.

JEFFERSON'S advice to his daughters was to avoid breaking with disagree people as long as they could with honor.
Sacrifices and suppressions of feeling for such an object, he thought, cost

In the depths of the sea, the waters are still; the heaviest grief is that borne in silence; the deepest leve flows through the eye and touch; the purest joy is unspeakable; the most impressive preacher at a funeral is the silent one whose lips are cold.
